Nomura International (Hong Kong) Limited and related party publicly criticised for Takeovers Code breaches

On 5 March 2018, we publicly criticised Nomura International (Hong Kong) Limited and Lee Yuen Yee, Annisa for failure to comply with certain requirements in the issuance of research reports and profit forecasts in breach of Rules 8 and 10 of the Takeovers Code.

A copy of the Executive Statement can be found in the section "Regulatory functions – Listing & takeovers – Takeovers & mergers – Decisions & statements – Executive decisions and statements" of the SFC website.

Reminder to market practitioners

We wish remind practitioners and parties who wish to take advantage of the securities market in Hong Kong that they should conduct themselves in accordance with the Codes in matters relating to takeovers, mergers and share buy-backs. In particular, we expect financial and other professional advisers to have the competence, professional expertise and adequate resources to fulfil their roles and to discharge their responsibilities under the Codes. Advisers are required to be conversant with the Codes as under section 1.7 of the Introduction to the Codes it is part of their responsibility to ensure their clients understand, and abide by, the requirements of the Codes.

valuation or an appropriate summary must be included in the offer document, offeree board circular or other documents. Rule 11.1(f) of the Takeovers Code sets out when a valuation report of properties will be required. Commonly, when such a property valuation report is required, the full property valuation report is included in the document. However, there may be situations (eg, where the offeree company has a large portfolio of properties) where a summary of the property valuation report is included in the document instead. In such circumstances, the full valuation report must be made available as a document on display in accordance with Note 1 to Rule 8 and Rule 11.5(d) of the Takeovers Code.

To facilitate transparency and ensure consistency with other cases where the full valuation report has been included and continues to be publicly available after completion of the Code transaction, where only a summary property valuation report is included, we would expect the full version to be published on the Stock Exchange's website by way of an announcement at the same time as the offer document, offeree board circular or the relevant shareholders circular is despatched to shareholders and published on the Stock Exchange's website.
