Statement of Reasons

Under section 209(2) of the Securities and Futures Ordinance (Cap. 571) (SFO)

1. Interactive Brokers Hong Kong Limited (IBHK), SBI China Capital Financial Services Limited (SBI), Monmonkey Group Securities Limited (Monmonkey) and Soochow Securities International Brokerage Limited (Soochow) (collectively referred to as the Specified Corporations) are corporations licensed under the SFO to carry on various regulated activities as follows:
 - IBHK – Type 1, 2 and 3 regulated activities
 - SBI – Type 1, 4 and 9 regulated activities
 - Monmonkey – Type 1 and 4 regulated activities
 - Soochow – Type 1 and 4 regulated activities
2. It appears to the Securities and Futures Commission (Commission) that the imposition of the prohibitions and requirements set out in the Notices of this date issued by the Commission under sections 204 and 205 of the SFO is desirable in the interest of the investing public or in the public interest.
3. The Commission has reached this view on the basis of the following matters:
 - (a) On 25 October 2024, the Commission received a report from a brokerage firm in relation to unauthorized access into 6 different client accounts via the internet which resulted in a number of unauthorized stock purchases for a stock listed on The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited (SEHK) (Company A) on 24 October 2024.
 - (b) On 6 November 2024, the Commission received another report from the brokerage firm in relation to further unauthorized access into and purchases from 5 other client accounts for another stock listed on SEHK (Company B) on 6 November 2024.
 - (c) The Commission suspects that these client accounts might have been hacked by market manipulators and the share prices of Company A and Company B experienced substantial movements due to the aggressive purchases from the hacked accounts.
 - (d) Whilst the investigation is still ongoing, evidence obtained by the Commission to date suggests that certain traders (Traders) might have been involved with the suspected hackers in manipulative trading and/or participated in a deceptive scheme in respect of the dealings in shares of Company A and Company B on and around 24 October 2024 and 6 November 2024 respectively, by inflating the share prices to an artificially high level to enable the subsequent disposals of these shares by the Traders at significant profit.
 - (e) The accounts which are the subject of the Notices of this date issued by the Commission under sections 204 and 205 of the SFO are securities accounts belonging to the Traders which contain the sale proceeds of the suspected manipulative activities.
 - (f) The Commission has reasons to suspect that false trading, price rigging and/or stock market manipulation within the meaning of sections 274, 275 and 278 of the SFO might have taken place and/or persons might have committed offences under sections 295, 296, 299 and/or 300 of the SFO and/or breached Part XV of the SFO.
 - (g) Where it appears to the Commission that a person has contravened any of the provisions of the SFO specified above, the Court of First Instance (CFI), on the application of the Commission, may make an order requiring the person to take such steps as the CFI may direct, including steps to restore the parties to the transaction to the position in which they were before the transaction was entered into, or to pay damages under section 213 of SFO. Further action taken by the Commission may result in the person be ordered to disgorge the profits he/she has made.

- (h) The Commission believes that it is necessary to prevent the Traders and/or person(s) connected with the Traders from operating and dealing with the accounts specified in the Notices and to preserve the cash and securities in the accounts pending further investigation.
- (i) As there is a potential risk of dissipation, the Commission considers that it is desirable in the interest of the investing public or in the public interest to impose on the Specified Corporation the prohibitions and requirements as set out in the Notices issued by the Commission on this date.
